Chief Mao Foe Reported Toppled

TOKYO (AP)—Chairman Mao Tse-tung's leadership claimed today President Liu Shao-chi of Red China has been toppled and that the party is now healthier, stronger and more vigorous.

The Red Flag, theoretical journal of the Chinese Communist Party, made the claim in an editorial commemorating the 46th anniversary of the founding of the party.

The editorial, broadcast by Peking's official New China News Agency, said Mao supporters "have exposed and overthrown the top party person in authority taking the

Must Make Big Sacrifices To Realize Unity, Says Ky

SAIGON (AP)—Premier Nguyen Cao Ky who has withdrawn from South Vietnam's presidential race told his countrymen today everyone must make sacrifices necessary to unify the nation.

Ky who agreed yesterday to run for the vice-presidency declared in a speech marking the closing of an election seminar:

"If necessary, we must make sacrifices in order to realize unity. I feel I have lived up to those standards and feel qualified to ask you to live up to the same spirit. We must also prove the prestige of the armed forces. The armed forces can only carry out its mission if it is united. If we can sacrifice our very life, we can do anything else including the renunciation of titles. I would like you to have this attitude in the elections."

Ky announced yesterday he would be the No. 2 man on a ticket headed by Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu, forming a purely military ticket that appears a likely winner.

Ky made the surprise decision under pressure from the ruling Armed Forces Council which rallied behind Thieu when he entered the presidential race June 14.

IT WAS APPARENT that Ky had lost so much support among the generals on the council that he was forced to take a back seat to Thieu. It is unlikely that Ky would have accepted second place if he thought he had the power to make any other decision.

Ky, dressed in a dark gray business suit, was greeted by a Vietnamese honor guard as he arrived at Dien Hong Palace for a brief address to province chiefs from all over the country about the election.

He declined to answer any questions from newsmen who crowded around him as he came out of the palace. Thieu was not present.

"THE PURPOSE of the war cabinet is to build and perfect democracy in Vietnam. Only with this constitutional unity can we add to the prestige of the people on an international stage and defeat the Communists, Ky told the province chiefs.

"Plan an impartial, fair election that serves only the interest of the nation. I call this the spirit of service, the spirit of the fighter. If we have this spirit, there is no obstacle that cannot be overcome."

A special investigator for Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison charged today that the Central Intelligence Agency has concealed at least 51 official documents vital to an investigation of President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

Tom Bethell, assigned by Garrison to research the National Archives in Washington, D. C., told the States-Item that from the list of concealed information it is apparent that the CIA knew "a great deal" about Lee Harvey Oswald before the assassination.

The Warren Commission concluded that Oswald acted alone in killing the president, but Garrison contends that there was a conspiracy, hatched in New Orleans, of which Oswald was a part.

"THERE ARE 1,555 Commission Documents listed in the archives," Bethell said. "Of these, only about 1,200 are unclassified and available to the public."

Bethell is a London schoolteacher who came to New Orleans earlier this year to study the city's traditional jazz. He became intrigued with Garrison's investigation, said Bethell, and asked the district attorney if he could assist in the probe.

Garrison signed him on and sent him to the archives.

Bethell returned last week after spending more than a month in the nation's capital and compiled his notes. Today he showed one of his memoranda to the States-Item.

IN THE MEMORANDUM, Bethell lists 29 commission documents which he selected as being of special interest to Garrison. He said he chose them from a total list of 51 classified files on the assassination.

Among the most significant of these, Bethell said, were documents whose titles indicated that the CIA had extensive information on Oswald before the assassination, that Oswald may have had access to secret U-2 aircraft files, that the CIA knew more about Jack Ruby (the man who shot Oswald) than it revealed publicly, and that the CIA failed to turn over some information to the Warren Commission.

In support of his allegation that the CIA knew about Oswald prior to the assassination, which occurred in Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963, Bethell cited a paragraph from one of the unclassified files.

AMONG THE AVAILABLE documents, he said, there appears a notarized statement by State Department officer James D. Crowley, which says:

"The first time I remember learning of Oswald's existence was when I received

"Jaynie is with God now. I know he has taken her, but Jayne Mansfield is a legend and as long as there is an earth, her name will be remembered here."

These were the words of Mickey Hargitay as he sat in a corner of the Orpheus Foundation Hospital in New Orleans last night remembering the woman he knew and loved he said softly. "They're so beautiful."

He pulled a letter from his pocket. It was dated April 5, 1957, and he said he'd carried it with him ever since he received it. She was in London and he was in Rome.

"Zoltan has started school now," he said, "and I can't start. There's a numbness in the back of his neck that is
